

En misundelse værdig tur

Den 19. april 2018 var det tid til vores april smagning. Emnet var rejsefortælling fra Belgien.

Mange medlemmer var mødt frem denne aften for at høre om Kim og Jerrys tur til Belgien.

Om interesse skyldes det meget gode øl der kommer fra Belgien eller om det var for at få gode rejse tips er ikke til at vide.

Men begge dele var tilstede denne aften

Kim og Jerry havde fundet 10 øl på deres tur rundt i Belgien, som de havde valgt at servere. Sammen med øllene blev der fortalt og vist billeder fra turen rundt.

Når man hørte til spørge lysten blandt i fremmødte, så kan vi nok forvente flere der vil lave ture til Belgien, for at smage på det gode øl.

Der skal lyde en rigtig stor tak til Kim og Jerry for deres rejsefortælling.

Fort Lapin 8 Tripel

The name Fort Lapin (in full: Fort Lapin Triple 8) makes a fairly straightforward reference to an old fort that used to be located in the eponymous quarter in the City of Bruges. The military building has long since disappeared, but the quarter, and hence the new brewery, still bears its name. Fort Lapin itself dates back to 1664, which makes it far older than the nearby Fort Beieren, which has therefore been preserved much better.

This imperial stout of 8% ABV will surprise palates seeking for character beers with a lot of flavor. Guaranteed non- Pasteurized, Non-sterilized and non-filtered. it offers roasted coffee and cocoa aromas, revealing a harmonious bitterness throughout the savoring of the beer. The name Black {C} refers doubly to its impenetrable black body as well as the brewery where the stout originated from. ## Kasteel Barista Chocolate Quad

Bryggeri: Brouwerij Van Honsebrouck

Stilart: Belgian Strong Ale

ABV: 11%

Was first produced as "Kasteel Winter" but then rebranded to "Baarista Chocote Quad". The name "Barista" conjures thoughts of the fragrance of steaming Coffe below a layer of expertly creas froth. This may sounds rather far-fetched for a beer... However, the aromas and the flavours of caramel, cacao and roast malt match seamlessly with the "black gold" and Chocolate. This beer builds bridges with the world of hot beverages, with warming alcohol in the finish. One to enjoy all the year roudg: With a meal, in front of an open fire or on an outdoor terrace.
